Some examples could be: Longevity—An institution or individual that has supported the organization for a long time. Strong Participation—This could include providing leadership candidates, active members, hosting meetings or always in attendance at meetings. Participates at all levels—This could be an individual or institution that participates at all levels of the organization; Chapter, ERAPPA and APPA. Hosting an Event—Hosting an ERAPPA or Chapter event that was innovative or done extraordinarily well. Unrecognized Hard Work—This could be someone or an institution that works hard to support the organization but has not received recognition. This would be similar to the APPA Unsung Hero. Mission Support—an individual or institution that has supported the strategic goals of the organization. Bridge Builder—someone who has strengthened the relationship between the Chapter and ERAPPA. Showed Significant Initiative—Someone who put forth substantial effort in supporting the organization. Chapter Development—an individual or institution that has shown extraordinary effort in helping to develop, sustain or reinvigorate a Chapter. Over Achiever—participates in Chapter newsletters, APPA/ERAPPA publications, presentations, membership drives, meetings, relationships with other members, and overall membership involvement.

Norman Bedwell Award

The Norman H. Bedell Award was created in 1996 by ERAPPA to recognize the contributions of Norman H. Bedell who served APPA, ERAPPA and KAPPA as International Vice-President for Professional Affairs, Regional Officer and President, and as Chapter Founder and Treasurer. Norman demonstrated a unique blend of dedication and tenacity coupled with a sincere love and belief in people. This award memorializes his contributions by recognizing another member who has served with distinction and exemplifies the leadership qualities of the late Norman H. Bedell.
